Hi Beth,

Your old friend and sort-of former colleague here. I'm working with Jamie Malanowski on a long-term project under Melissa's direction. As part of the project, Melissa has asked us to put together a history of the Executive Chamber's response to the pandemic. It will eventually be turned into a narrative, but will require talking to senior staff closely involved with the governor. For now, we are focused on the early stages. Melissa mentioned a meeting that you attended along with Mujica and the boss as the threat was unfolding – must have been late February. I know you must be crazy busy at the moment, but at some point it would be really helpful if you could spare a few minutes to chat with Jamie and myself about that meeting. We'll keep it as short as possible.

You guys are doing an amazing job. I realize how this must sound, but I miss being in the thick of it with all of you. (Absence makes the heart grow fonder and the mind go softer!)

Be well and hang in there,

Tom Topousis
